Room to Reward

The Bureau is happy to announce its first annual round of nominations for the Room To Reward volunteer rewards scheme. Three of our wonderful volunteers received a free one or two-night stay with breakfast in a hotel of their choice courtesy of Room To Reward.

The scheme donates empty rooms from participating hotels to charities and volunteer programmes across the country. It offers a chance for organisations such as ours to reward volunteers in a way not possible without Room To Reward's help.

If your group or charity is interested in signing up for the scheme, please get in touch with either ourselves using the details overleaf, or by contacting Joe@roomtoreward.org or calling 01202 489058
